PASSPORT & VISA: A valid passport is required for all travelers and must be valid 6 months beyond your anticipated date of return to U.S.A. At the time of printing, U.S. citizens require visas for Kenya, Tanzania, Zimbabwe, Zambia Mozambique and Egypt. Non-U.S. citizens should check with specific embassies or consulates for their requirements. Visa requirements may change without notice, thus we recommend, all travelers' check with the appropriate embassies or consulates to determine if any visas are needed. Where visas are required we strongly recommend they be obtained before departure. Securing visas is the responsibility of each traveler. It is of utmost importance that all travelers thoroughly check visa requirements before their intended date of travel. To Africa Tours & Safaris, Inc. and its agents cannot be held responsible by travelers who do not meet visa requirements.

IMPORTANT NOTE ON PASSPORT PAGES: It is the responsibility of each traveler to make sure their passport is valid and has sufficient "VISA" pages to stamp entry/exit visas. Please note the last 3 pages on the passport are "NOT VISA" pages; they are amendment pages, and thus visas cannot be stamped on these pages. There should be at least a minimum of 2 to 3 blank (unstamped) "VISA" pages for each country to be visited. Failure to have 2 blank (unstamped) "VISA" pages you run the risk of being denied entry even when in possession of valid passport.

TRAVEL ADVISORIES AND WARNINGS: It is the responsibility of the traveler to become informed on the most current travel advisories and warnings by refereeing to the US State Department's travel website at www.travel.state.gov/ or call at 1.888.407.4747. In the event of an active State Department Travel Warning against travel to the specific destination of the trip, should you still choose to travel, notwithstanding any travel advisory or warning, you assume all risk of personal injury, death or property damage that may arise out of the events like those advised or warned against.

To Africa Tours & Safaris, Inc.

HEALTH REQUIREMENTS: In order to enjoy your safari/tour, passengers must be in general good health. Our programs are intended for persons of reasonably good health and without physical disabilities which would create a hazard either for the passenger or other passengers. Therefore, it is imperative that persons with medical problems make them known at the time of booking or well in advance of the departure date. To Africa Tours & Safaris, Inc. and associated companies reserve the right to decline to accept anyone as a tour/safari participant at any time if in the sole judgment of such entities, a tour/safari participant is deemed by them to be medically unfit to travel. By forwarding deposit for the tour, you certify that you do not have any physical disability that might create a hazard for yourself or other tour participants. To Africa Tours & Safaris, Inc. and its associate assume no liability regarding the provision of medical care or any special medical accommodations. Our pre-departure information provides general recommendations for any inoculations or precautions required for the destination(s) booked. It is the responsibility of the safari/tour participant to check with their medical professionals, local health clinics or Center for Disease Control in Atlanta for specific requirements.

TOUR MEMBERSHIP: in our endeavor to ensure congenial membership, we reserve the right to refuse the application of anyone and/or to expel any tour/safari participant whose conduct is incompatible with the interest and well being of the other tour/safari participants.

AIRLINE RESPONSIBILITY: The airlines concerned are not responsible for any act, omission, or events during the time passengers are not aboard their conveyance. The passenger contract in use by the airlines concerned when issued shall constitute the sole contract between the airline and the purchaser of the ticket. Flight delays and schedule changes are the sole responsibility of the airline.

RESPONSIBILITY: To Africa Tours & Safaris, Inc. cannot be held responsible for any additional costs incurred by the passenger due to missed, canceled or delayed flights. These costs will be borne by the tour/safari participant. By the acceptance of vouchers, contracts, or tickets, the tour/safari participant agrees to the foregoing and also agrees that neither To Africa Tours & Safari, Inc. or its affiliates shall not be or become liable or responsible for any loss, injury or damage of person, property or otherwise in connection with and accommodations, transportation, or other services, resulting directly or indirectly from acts of God, dangers incident to the bush, the sea, by fire, machinery, actual or intended wars, whether declared or not, hostilities, civil disturbances, strikes, riots, thefts, sickness, quarantines, medical or custom regulations, defaults, delays or cancellation or of changes in itinerary, from causes beyond the control of To Africa Tours & Safaris, Inc.

Anyone not utilizing the pre-arranged transportation or accommodation is responsible for the cost of any substitute transportation or accommodation. No change in the itineraries is expected, however To Africa Tours and Safaris, Inc. reserve the right to make changes if necessary. To Africa Tours & Safaris, inc. cannot be responsible for changes of itinerary.

The payment of the deposit or any other partial or full payment for a safari / tour reservation constitutes agreement and consent to all provisions of the general terms and conditions contained in the brochure, website or customized itineraries and all promotional trips.
